FY07 PEER-TO-PEER
TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Attention Non-Entitlement Communities!

- Do you need help with a community development or economic development problem or issue?
- Do you want to increase your community's capacity to carry out community development and/or economic development projects?

The Peer-to-Peer Program Can Help You.

- To apply, send a request letter describing your problem or issue.
- DHCD's Division of Community Services will help you locate a colleague from another Massachusetts community with the expertise you need to address your problem or issue.
- DHCD will award your community up to $1,000 to pay for up to 30 hours of consulting services and incidental expenses for Peer technical assistance.
- Apply early. Projects must be completed by June 30, 2007.
- DHCD has funding for ten FY07 Peer grants.
